A married man is at all times square just because his wife corners him every now and then.

Hearst may not get to be Mayor of New York but the country must look on him as a more serious proposition, even if he does part his hair in the middle.

The Star is gratified to learn of the convalescence of Edtori J. P. Caldwell of the Charlotte Observer, and hopes he will soon be doing business with his Faber again.

"Mayor George B. McClellan has a good face," says a New York contemporary. However, Mac is depending more on the face of the returns in order to win in the contest with Hearst.

The manufacturers several months ago wanted President Roosevelt to enlarge their markets for them, and now the North Carolina Republicans want him to settle their family troubles. The people surely must think Mr. Roosevelt is a man who "does things."

Some newspapers think 15 cents is a steep price for cotton. Most cotton lands produce about 250 pounds of lint cotton which at that price would be $37.50 per acre with all expenses to come out of it. A farmer would not become a frienzied financier if he got 15 cents a pound for every pound of cotton he raised.

It is said that in a short while the white man will own all of Africa and the natives will be crowded to the wall like the American Indian. The Indian used to consider himself in full costume when he had a few eagle feathers stuck in his hair, and the African's dress suit was a grass apron. If these two peoples had known what it was to wear clothes, build cities, and have an army and navy they wouldn't be where they are today. Great is the "big stick."

—"Art," said the moralizer, "can never successfully imitate nature." 'Oh, I don't know," rejoined the demoralizer. "How about artificial ice?"—Chicago News.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The ... no Club will meet Monday evening ... 15 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlor.

—British ... amer Cairndon, 1,732 tons, Capt. Askby, sailed from Hamburg for Wilmington Thursday.

—Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M. will hold its regular convocation tomorrow night in the Masonic Temple at the usual hour.

—Capt. Wm. F. Robertson will speak and Miss Mattie Lee Horne will sing at the P. S. A. meeting at the Boys' Brigade Armory at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

—Mr. Marsden Bellamy has contributed a very handsome piece of furniture to the Boys' Brigade equipment. It is in the shape of a combination book case and desk.

—A sale of home-made candies will be held by St. Mary's Guild at St. James' parish house every Monday from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock, beginning to-morow, Nov. 20th.

—Sheriff Stedman gives notice that all costs will be remitted on taxes paid by Tuesday of this week. "This is the last call," says the sheriff ,in an official notice published elsewhere in to-day's paper.

—Cotton futures were slightly off yesterday though New York spot remained steady at 11.15. The receipts were 2,403 bales against 3,304 bales same day last season. The local market was not quoted yesterday.

—Two cotton steamers arrived yesterday, both of good tonnage. The British steamer Victoria, 2,232 tons, Capt. Pickthorn, arrived from Rio Janeiro and the British steamer Griqua, 2,100 tons, Capt. Anderson, arrived from New York.

—Wash Howe, brother of the late John Harris Howe and a well known colored man of the city, was found stricken with paralysis in his room Wednesday morning at his home on Queen, between Third and Fourth streets. Since that time he has been conscious but has lost the power of speech. His condition is regarded as very critcal indeed.

—Fayetteville Observer: "The Superior Court of Cumberland county for the trial of criminal cases only will convene in this city Monday with Judge Fred Moore presiding and Solicitor Lyon representing the State. There are a number of cases of more or less interest for trial, but of overshadowing interest are the bank embezzlement cases."

Edward Dudley Cowan.

Friends in the city have learned with regret of the death of Mr. Edward Dudley Cowan, a native of Wilmington but for the past 40 years or more a resident of Mississippi. Mr. Cowan passed away at his home in Canton, Miss., several days ago and the remains were laid to rest there. The deceased was in the 73rd year of his age and was a brother of the late Col. Robert H. Cowan, Col. David S. Cowan, Capt. John Cowan and Mr. Platt D. Cowan, of this city. He is survived by two sons, Messrs. Thomas and John Cameron Cowan and two daughters, Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Dinkins. He was very prominent in busines circles of Canton and was a man of considerable means.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings To-day.

Rev. Fred. D. Hale, D. D., the gifted pastor of the First Baptist church, will address the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at 5 o'clock. His subject wil be "The Castaway" and all may be assured of something interesting and helpful. A preliminary song service will be led by Mr. H. E. O'Keef and during the service Mrs. W. O. Shelburne will sing a contralto solo. All men are invited. The boys' meeting will be held at 10 A. M. and will be addressed by Mr. W. M. Cumming.

LIST OF CASUALTIES

Week-End Grinds out The Usual Grist For Hospital and Newspaper People

ONE NEGRO SHOOTS ANOTHER

Objected to Lodger at His House and Put Lead Into Him—White Man Bruised and Broken—Two Other Slight Fracases.

The week's end, except on rare occasions, always brings its list of Saturday night casualties, affording work for the hospital surgeons and material for newspaper stories. It's a dull Saturday night in August when the heavy tread of the police patrol wagon or the clanging of the alarm bell on the hospital ambulance is not heard until well after midnight. Last night was not the exception and from early until late there was "something doing" all round.

Walker Page, colored, 35 or 36 years of age, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded last night between 10 and 11 o'clock by Henry BuHuck, also colored, at the house of the latter, near Ninth and Bladen streets. An altercation was in progress between the men, Bulluck having fired three times. Page was sent to the hospital where he was reported late last night as doing very well, but not out of danger. Only one of the three bullets fired at him took effect, entering the chest just below the collar bone on the left side and passing dangerously near the heart. Bulluck drives the sawdust wagon at the Independent Ice factory. During his absence yesterday, his wife rented a spare room to the negro Page, and when the husband came home and found the alien in the house, he was very wrathy. He went to the room where Page was beginning to settle down comfortably and provoked a difficulty with him, according to witnesses of the affair. Page was a younger man and was apparently getting the best of the landlord, when the latter drew a pistol and fired three times. Page ran as far as Ninth and Bladen and fell. From there the ambulance was summoned and he was taken to the hospital. Bulluck, who is a South Carolina negro, made off before the police arrived. Subsequently he came to the Independent Ice factory and was taken in custody by Night Engineer Morris, who heard the police were looking for the negro. Bulluck had a 32-calibre Harrington & Richardson pistol on his person when Police Sergeant went to the ice house in response to a telephone message and took the negro to the police station house. He also had a stab in the cheek, bearing out a statement he made to the effect that Page had him down and was about to cut his throat when he drew his piston and fired. Bulluck will be kept at the police station until the wounded negro is able to attend the trial.

Picked Up Unconscious.

Last night about 11 o'clock as he was on his way home, on the east side of Fifth street, between Nun and Church, about midway of the block, Mr. Wilbur Dosher stumbled on the form of a young white man, lying face downward and very bloody. He was unconscious and Mr. Dosher could do nothing under the circumstances than the "Good Samaritan" act. He picked the wounded man up and carried him bodily a block and a half to James M. Hall's drug store, where it developed that the person was Jim Marine, 23 or 24 years of age, a son of Archie Marine, the well known diver. Mr. Hall gave the young man the necessary immediate attention and he was later sent to the hospital in the ambulance. There it developed that the patient was not seriously hurt. He had a cut back of the head, a bruise on the forehead and several contusions about the face. He had regained consciousness at the drug store and said that he had been cut and beaten but he would not tell by whom. He will be out in a day or two.

Ruined His Physiognomy.

Early last night Henry Taylor, a colored boy of about 18 years, was carried to the hospital for treatment of a severe slash across the face, extending from the left eye brow, clean down the cheek to his mouth. As the blade passed over, both eye lids were split open but, by a miracle, the ball of the eye was not touched. The boy had been in a little "friendly difficulty" with another boy, near Fourth and Brunswick. He will never look the same anymore, but the wound will not be serious.

Cut at Guano Factory.

Wm. Cole, 21 years old, was brought to the hospital late last night from Almont factory, up the river, he was shot through the muscle of the left arm by another negro with whom he had trouble. The wound was dressed and he was sent home.

Funeral of Mrs. Sandlin.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Thomas Sandlin, wife of Mr. A. B. Sandlin, who died on Thursday night after a long illness at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, was conducted yesterday afternoon from her late home, No. 218 North Second street, Rev. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, officiating. The interment was in Oakdale Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Honorary, Dr. Burbank and Dr. Akerman; active, Messrs. J. L. and W. P. Toon, W. H. Sprunt, J. C. Stewart, S. Jewett and A. Carpenter.

Daughters of Confederacy.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the W. L. I. armory Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. George Davis Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, will meet at the same place, half an hour earlier. All members are urged to be present.

Concert to-day at Lumina. **

THE ALDERMEN WILL MEET

Matters in Connection With Streets and Sidewalks Will Be Discussed —Controversy With Mr. Sloan.

The Board of Aldermen will meet in special session to-morrow night at 8 o'clock by call of the Mayor at the request of the Streets and Wharves Committee. Matters in connection with the rock quarry, the streets and the sidewalks of the city will be considered with a number of other questions that may be presented.

The Board will also probably authorize some decided action one way or the other in the controversy with Mr. E. D. Sloan over the sidewalk line on Ann street. Yesterday Mr. Sloan was notified that the obstruction on the sidewalk would not be permitted and that if he persisted in his purpose to build over the line as claimed by the city, he would be held liable under the city ordinances provided in such cases.

Mr. Sloan in support of his contention in regard to the sidewalk says that the part of the same which he proposes to enclose running to the old retaining wall, or nearly so, of the old sidewalk and not beyond that line, was filled in by him at considerable expense and that it looks manifestly unfair for him to have to give up this section to the free use of the city. He has no desire to be contentious or to claim property which he does not own, he having a deed covering the very section of the sidewalk which it is proposed to make him vacate and which has been held in quiet and undisputed possession for fifty years or more. This place has been in existence for a number of years, known as the "Old Tanyard Bottom," and has been regarded as an eye-sore, and if the city so much desired to improve that street, Mr. Sloan wants to know why they have not taken some action and not lie in wait and now take snap judgment on him and have the street improved and beautified at his personal expense. He further states that if the city will straighten its sidewalk line from his property to the river, he will enter no objection to giving up the section of sidewalk in controversy.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

Transfers Which Appear From Deeds Filed For Record Yesterday.

From deeds filed for record yesterday, the following real estate transfers appear:

J. H. Thomas, R G. Grady and Bettie S. Thomas to Ben Judge, for $105, ten and a half acres of land adjoining the Lutterloh tract in the country.

W. A. McGowan and wife to John Bennett, for $300, property on south side of Bladen, near Fifth street, 55x 47 feet in size.

John Oil and wife to Mary C. Boesch, for $150, tract of land in Cape Fear township.

Heirs of the late James Wilson to D. O'Connor, for $10,000, several lots of land in the city of Wilmington known as the "Wilson property."

Walker Taylor and wife to Erna C. Boesch, for $750, property at southwest corner of Sixth and Bladen streets, 66x82 1-2 feet in size.

PAULINE HALL OPERA CO.

Two Large Audiences at Theatre Eminently Well Satisfied.

The Pauline Hall Opera Company, presenting the charming comic opera success "Dorcas," with a wealth of scenic investiture, beautiful costumes and brilliant light effects, was seen by two large audiences at the theatre yesterday matinee and evening. The production, while by a comparatively small company, ranked high with the list of others of the same class seen here in recent years. Miss Hall, the star, of course, was the favorite in the cast, but she was supported most excellently. The criticism is offered that some of the lines were rather broadly suggestive, but as a whole the presentation seemed to take well and, after all, if the audiences are satisfied, what's the use to sermonize. The same production would be witnessed by a larger house next time.

Counsel For Coast Line.

The Washington corespondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "Ex-Judge John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia, has ben retained by the Atlantic Coast Line to appear in the case against the North Carolina Corporation Commission, which is to be argued before the Supreme Court of the United States at this term. This is the Selma connection case, involving the powers of the Commission. Judge Johnson is frequently spoken of as the foremost railway corporation lawyer in this country. He is said to have gotten a fee of $15,000 for representing the three big railroads in the railway taxation cases several years ago."

Oyster Supper This Week.

The N. N. S. Society of Fifth Street M. E. church will give an oyster supper at the residence of Mr. Walter E. Yopp, on Nun, between Fifth and Sixth streets, on Thursday evening of this week. The proceeds will be distributed upon a unique plan. For every five cents expended at the supper one vote will be allowed to one of the circles engaged in raising a church carpet fund and the circle receiving the largest number of votes in the contest will be given 20 per cent. of the net proceeds of the supper. All friends invited.

Car Ran Into Horse.

Last night after the theatre while a baggage wagon of the City Livery Co., was backed up to the stage entrance of the Academy of Music, a junction-bound street car, coming down the grade, ran into one of the horses attached to the vehicle and seriously injured him. The front teeth of the animal were knocked out. The wagon was broken up to a slight extent.

ICE FACTORY MERGER

Manufacturers' Society of Wilmington Incorporated By Secretary of State

MR. W. E. WORTH INTERESTED

Establish, Lease, Sub-Lease and Operate Plants Anywhere in United States—Other Charters Issued Yesterday.

Application was made yesterday at the office of the Secretary of State in Raleigh for a charter for the "Ice Manufacturers' Society, Incorporated," of Wilmington. The capital stock is scheduled at $10,000 but it is believed that the Society will be interested in and control a business many times that amount. The incorporators are among the leading ice manufacturers of the South and include Messrs. W. E. Worth, of Wilmington; George L. Baker, of Columbia, S. C.; W. J. Rushton, of Birmingham, Ala.; Abe Ellis, of Augusta, and M. W. Thompson, of Greensboro.

A special to the Star last night from Raleigh says that the corporation is for the evident purpose of merging a number of ice plants in and around Wilmington and in other Southern cities. The articles of incorporation stipulate that the company shall have authority to establish, operate, lease and sub-lease ice plants anywhere in the United States. The Society is believed to be for the purpose of systematizing the control of the several ice factories already under the one general management and that it is simply to carry out a merger that was practically effected several months ago.

Other Raleigh News.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 18.—Other charters issued to-day are to the Red Springs Trading Co., of Red Springs, Robeson county; capital $25,000 by W. T. Bryan, William Jones, Jno. F. McNair, who subscribed $15,000. The McDonald-Williams Lumber Co., of Rennert, Robeson county; capital $15,000 by J. C. McDiarmid, A. B. Williams and A. K. McDiarmid.

An order is made by Governor Glenn for a special term of Edgecome Superior Court, January 15th, for the trial of criminal causes. Judge E. B. Jones will preside.

Conditional pardons are granted by Governor Glenn for Elmer Woodard and Arthur Bryant, two negro boys of Johnson county, serving two years on the county roads for larceny, the conditions being that they shall not be guilty of crime again and shall lead sober, industrious lives. The pardons were recommended by the judge, solicitor, county officers and numerous citizens.

THE SOROSIS BAZAAR.

Delightful Event on Social Calendar For the Present Week.

The ladies of the Sorosis are enthusiastically at work over their Bazaar to be held on Thursday and Friday of this week in Rooms 5 and 6 of the Odd Fellows' Building. There will be a table of fancy articles and other things suitable for Christmas presents. Also plenty of candy as well as ice cream, cake, home-made jellies, pickles and preserves; cut flowers and potted plants.

There wil be a special feature for the children on Friday afternoon. On Thursday afternoon and night a supper will be served in another room of the building. This is an important feature of the Bazaar and one which will prove more satisfactory to the men than the sale of fancy work. Tickets will be sold in advance at 35 cents.

There will be no raffling of articles and no charge for admission.

The committees are under the following able leadership: Chairman of Fancy Work, Mrs. J. M. Solky; Candy, Mrs. J. Walter Williamson; Ice cream, Cake, Jellies, etc., Mrs. R. W. Hicks; Supper, Mrs. R. W. Price; Children's Afternoon, Mrs. M. G. Saunders; Plants and Cut Flowers, Miss May Morton. Committee on Arrangements, Miss Wiswell, Mrs. Walker Taylor, Miss Stella Divine.

All persons, whether members of the Sorosis or not, are requested to report their donations to the chairmen of the above committees. It is hoped all patrons of the library will respond generously with their assistance.

MAYOR'S COURT YESTERDAY.

Number of Offenders at Police Matinee—One Bound Over.

The Mayor's court yesterday was of no special interest, the case of A. F. Thompson, the white man arrested for the larceny of engine fittings, having been continued until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Green, of Bladen county, the prosecuting witness.

Each of the participants in the disorder at the Seamen's Home Friday night were fined $5 and costs each. The defendants were Supt. Christoffersen, of the Home, and an obstreperous lodger, John Weldon, whom he arrested, being a special policeman. Later, it was alleged, that both the special officer and his prisoner were disorderly and they were both arrested by the regular policeman who went with the patrol wagon.

Ed. Haywood, the negro arrested by Mr. George W. Britt for the larceny of building material from around some houses that were being repaired in the vicinity of Eleventh and Princess streets, was bound to Superior Court under bond of $25.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mrs. Emma Lynch, of Oxford, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Kingsbury.

—Mrs. Lucy J. Farriss and son, Mr. W. T. Farriss, returned yesterday from Henderson, whither they went with the remains of Mr. Farriss, who passed away here the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Peoples, of Jacksonville, N. C., and Mrs. J. A. Peoples, of Wilmington, left Friday evening on the steamer Tar Heel to visit relatives at 118 C. street, Fayetteville. Mr. Peoples was here this week for the first time in 13 years and was greeted by many of his old-time friends.

—It will be gratifying news indeed to many friends to know that a telegram was received yesterday evening stating that Miss Frankie Fennell, who has been quite ill with typhoid pneumonia at Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., was very much better. Her brother, Mr. Owen Fennell, Jr., who, with Mrs. Fennell, has been with her during the illness, will return home to-day.

AT LUMINA TO-DAY.

Indications are for Large Crowds—Music by Orchestra.

If the weather is half so fine as it was yesterday afternoon, an immense crowd will go down to Lumina this afternoon to enjoy the comforts of this delightful retreat and to indulge in the delicacy of an old-fashioned oyster roast as served there by Stokley. The usual concert will be given this afternoon for which the following programme is announced:

Part I.

THE LADIES ASKED TO MEET.

Arrangements for Annual Thanksgiving Event at Memorial Hospital.

Arrangements for the reception and "Donation Day" entertainment at the James Walker Memorial Hospital during the Thanksgiving season will assume definite shape at the meeting of all ladies interested in the movement at the W. L. I. armory Wednesday afternoon of this week. All ladies interested in the hospital work are most cordially invited. Committees will be appointed and organized, and the arrangements for the affair will be put under way at once. The date will probably be the day before or just after Thanksgiving and an opportunity will be given to contribute to the hospital in any way that may be acceptable to the donor. The laundry fund will no doubt appeal most largely to the public as the needs of this cause have been most urgently pressed recently. The entertainment will be quite an enjoyable affair and all friends are asked to co-operate in the movement.

THESE ARE CLEVER RIDERS.

Trick Bicyclists Around the World—Touch Atlantic To-Day.

A couple of trick bicycle riders, on a trip around the world, starting from California some months ago on a wager, arrived in the city yesterday and gave a couple of open-air exhibitions of their skill at Front and Market and again last night at Front and Chesnut streets. Their clever stunts attracted a large crowd and the exhibitions were pronounced among the very best ever seen here. They are out for the sport there is in bicycling and incidentally take the coin by popular offerings to meet expenses. The team will go down to Wrightsville Beach this afternoon, taking their wheels for a "spin around" in the old Casino amphitheatre. They started from the Pacific ocean and will go down to meet the Atlantic by terms of the wager to-day.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sunday Morning, Nov. 19.

PROTECTION FOR THE LEATHER TRUST.

In Washington last Wednesday a delegation of the leading shoe, hide and leather manufacturers of the country, headed by Gov. William L. Douglas, of Massachusetts, and including representatives from all parts of the United States, called on President Roosevelt at the White House and urged the removal of the duty on hides. The Star's Associated Press dispatches gave an account of the conference, and to read between the lines we judged that it was rather a cold reception and one altogether discouraging which the President gave them. A New York Times special from Washington confirms that view of it, for the special says the delegation "met with a reception that stunned them."

Our impression was in reading the Associated Press dispatch that the reception was really a "frost," and we took occasion to say that the President lost the opportunity to express himself either in favor of reciprocity or in favor of especially reducing the useless high tariff on hides and leather. As a matter of fact the President would not discuss the matter with the committee for a peculiar reason which he gave. He assured the delegation, of course, that their representations should receive the painstaking attention of the Executive and of Congress but he would not commit himself.

Governor Douglas and other speakers, both Democrats and Republicans, urged the President to use his influence in the repeal of the tariff duty on hides. Governor Douglas went so far as to say for the twenty-eight manufacturers composing the delegation and representing the manufacturers of the whole country, that in order to get free hides and cheap leather they would willingly consent to a reasonable reduction of the duty of 25 per cent. on boots and shoes. Governor Douglas maintained and forcibly illustrated that the duty on hides seriously handicaps the shoe manufacturing industry and taxes the people unnecessarily on essential articles of foot wear; thus increasing the cost of living. He demonstrated that with cheaper leather the manufacturers could make cheaper shoes and increase their export business many fold. The complete argument of Governor Douglas was not given out but it can be inferred that it was thorough and convincing.

Imagine the consternation of the delegation, however, when the President refused to exchange views and discuss the matter, because somebody in the delegation might go off and misrepresent him. He gave as his reason for declining to express himself because Mr. Henry M. Whitney, recently a candidate for lieutenant-governor in Massachusetts, had misquoted him and "deliberately misrepresented what had occurred" when Mr. Whitney and a committee from Massachusetts had a conference with him and urged reciprocity with Canada.

In order not to be misunderstood last Wednesday when Gov. Douglas and his conferees called, the President had stenographers to take down every word that was said. The New York Times' account says "to cap the climax, he had the full report of his own speech and all the others typewritten and given out at the White House so that there could be no possible misrepresentation of what had taken place."

We regretted to observe that the President evaded the discussion with Governor Douglas and the delegation and failed to express himself on a matter which gets next to every man, woman and child in the United States. The folowing from the "Shoe and Leather Reporter," of Boston, shows what a tremendous thing the unjust tariff on hides is to the people:

"The leather market is still in an unsettled condition, and even though manufacturers' customers express their willingness to close spring delivery contracts, it offers little or no inducement, for the manufacturer—if he accepts such—would not consider himself immune from the risk of loss, unless he at once purchased the requisite leather and material to cover the contracts. This not only involves the purchase of leather two or three months ahead of the time he needs it to cut, but he must purchase such leather at the outside current price, which involves the tying up of more than a normal capital. The wholesaler is all the while confronted with the feeling that however much advance he is already paying, the price of shoes is tending toward a still higher level, and outside prices of to-day may look cheap three months hence. Under past conditions and experiences, such a sentiment would have no weight, nor would it influence his action, but the wholesaler has witnessed the price of shoes advance step by step until on men's staple shoes in several lines made from side leather made from domestic hides, the average advance is from 30 to 35c. per pair, and on women's shoes from 10 to 15 or 20c. per pair, and there is no relief in sight or anything that gives any hope that prices will recede for some time to come. Price is no more of a disturbing factor with the wholesaler than it is with the manufacturer, who is to-day doing business under difficult conditions."

From the above it will be seen that the appeal which the manufacturers made to President Roosevelt is more significant to the people than a casual reading of the account of the conference would indicate. The Leather Trust gets the benefit of the tariff on hides and it is a monstrous idea that the people, poor as well as rich, have to pay a burdensome tax on their shoes—an absolute necessity of life.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The result in Ohio is but fresh proof that Senator Dick does not fill the late Senator Hanna's shoes, but only rattles around in them.—Atlanta Journal.

—The American woman of to-day is not ashamed of honest employment. The circumstances are such that thousands of them are forced to work and while the number in the South is not as large as in the North, the conditions down this way are naturally such that they are not likely to lose respect of those more fortunate. Commenting on the plan of North Carolina hotel managers to employ white girls as waiters the Richmond News-Leader predicts that the system will prove successful, which means that it will be more generally adopted.—Raleigh Times.

—It is reported that the Spartanburg election board will not declare the result of the dispensary election so that dispensaries may continue until the close of the fiscal year, thus securing the county several thousand dollars it would not otherwise get. Prohibitionists resorting to subterfuges to obtain "blood money?" what has become of that holy horror at the very thought of such a thing? Are the Spartanburg prohibitionists actually going to take and handle those "blood stained" dollars? We are paralyzed with astonishment.—Columbia Record.

—A newspaper which is, perhaps, the only one of its kind ever published has made its appearance at Zurich. The title, "Journal Suisse des Fiances," explains itself. A leading article states that the object of the paper is to supply a list of engaged couples to tradesmen for business purposes. There appear to be twelve couples at present in Switzerland, says our Geneva correspondent. These names and addresses are given in the first number, The new journal will appear twice a week, but those who do not take the new venture seriously question whether there will be sufficient number of engaged couples every week to supply the "copy."—London Mail.

TWINKLINGS.

—Cannibal Chief—Have you any last message that you wish to send home? Stern-looking Female—Yes. I have. Don't let my son-in-law know.—Translated from "Meggendorfer Blatter."

—"Why are you so anxious to secure a drama from the pen of Baldersdash?" asked the friend. "He's never produced a successful play." "No," responded the New York manager, "but he's had a play suppressed."—

—The Male Idiot—"But how can I be sure that you love me?" The Female Ditto—"Demember that I have had many chances to marry handsome men, clever men and interesting men—and yet I accept you!"—Cleveland Leader.

—"My wife went shopping to-day and she had exactly $32.19 when she started out." "How are you so sure she had just that much?" "Because when she came back she told me that was the amount she had spent."—Philadelphia Pdess.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is what does it all. It's a wonder worker for women because it is Nature's remedy, adapted to the needs of twentieth century women.

No alcohol, no narcotic, no injurious drug. Made of glyceric extracts from roots, therefore their virtues grew in them in Nature's laboratory, viz: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root, and Golden Seal root; extracted, combined, preserved without alcohol, by Doctor Pierce's own peculiar process, and in the most exact proportions to secure the best effects.

If in need of careful, competent advice before beginning treatment, you will receive it without charge by writing, and stating your case, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. All letters confidentially received and answers sent in securely sealed envelopes.

"I was a great sufferer for six years," writes Mrs. Geo. Sorden, of 641 Bonda Street, Saginaw, Mich. "I commenced to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and have taken ten bottles in all. Am now regular, after having missed two years and suffered with pain in the head and back. I was so nervous, could not eat or sleep. Now I can thank you for my recovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

DIZZY?

Read This "A friend of mine suffered with backache, headache and dizzy spells, and seemed quite worn out from menstrual troubles," writes Miss G. N. Garrett, of Mayersville, Miss., "but she took Cardui by my advice and is now well."

Are you dizzy? Does your head swim? Do your eyes blur? Is your stomach sick? In women, these symptoms are often signs of disordered nervous system, or of liver or heart trouble, brought on by carelessness in regulating the menstrual functions. These functions are even more important to women than the bowel functions to either sex. Even if there is no stoppage, still, a gentle, cleansing, menstrual draught should be taken now and then—every doctor will tell you so. Otherwise the menstrual blood will decay inside you, and will be absorbed into your system, causing such pain and suffering as will make you lose all interest in life.

To cure yourself, take woman's best and safest remedy, menstrual cleanser, tonic and pain reliever, is the old, reliable, time-tested medicine, which, for over 70 years, has been a household word in America, viz:

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Nov. 18.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of 9 to 12 points and soon increased the loss to a matter of 14 to 16 points under lower cables, local bear pressure, and liquidation. Around 10.68 for January, covering was more of a factor and with some demand attracted by the report of the National Ginners' Association to the effect that 7,411,359 bales had been ginned (presumably to November 14) and that this represented 78 per cent. of the total crop, the market rallied partly and during the middle of the morning ruled quiet about 6 to 7 points net lower.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today were 51,032 bales against 50,312 last week and 46,064 last year. For the week (estimated) 370,000 bales against 391,611 last week and 373,372 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 13,186 bales against 11,075 last year and at Houston 14,040 bales against 9,284 last year.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Man's Unreasonableness

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist, price 50c. **

The Theatre

That handsome and gifted young artist, Paul Gilmore, under the management of Jules Murry, will reappear at the Academy to-morrow night, in his newest and most highly praised play, "Captain Debonnaire," a spectacular comedy romance in five acts, dramatized by William Farquhar Payson and James MacArthur from Mr. Payson's popular novel, "Debonnaire."

SOPHIE BRANDT,
In a "Madcap Princess."

This play, while being the strongest in plot and most novel in action that Mr. Gilmore ever had, has been mounted with a greater degree of lavishness than were his former productions. The first and last scenes show the grand dining hall of the Chateau St. Louis at Quebec in 1675. A banquet is being given in the first scene by the Governor of Canada to the famous regiment of Caringnan-Salieres, which has just arrived from France. Debonnaire is the favorite officer of this regiment. The second scene shows a beautiful garden overlooking the Hudson river at the French embassy in New Amsterdam, whither Debonnaire has gone on a moment's notice to win a girl he never has seen. The next scene presents a beautiful picture of one of those interesting old Dutch tap rooms in a New Harlem tavern, with its quaint furnishings and cheery atmosphere. The fourth scene is a very handsome interior, showing the library of the French secretary. The long windows look out across a broad balcony into the beautiful garden with the river in the distance. Mr. Gilmore's company, too, is the largest and strongest he ever had. The sale of seats opened at Plummer's yesterday morning.

THE "MADCAP PRINCESS."

Never before in the history of amusments here has such an extensive attraction been announced as the Sophie Brandt Opera Co., in "A Madcap Princess," for next Wednesday evening, according to the claims of Claxton Wilstach, the manager, who was here last week. There is no good reason for disputing Mr. Wilstach's assertion that he has the finest and largest musical attraction touring the South, as he is known to be prominent in his line and to have handled in the past some of the greatest stars in opera, such as Jefferson DeAngelis in "A Jolly Musketeer," and Marguerita Sylva in "The Princess Chic." Mr. Wilstach comes from a theatrical family of managers who are associated with the greatest stars we have. His brothers, Paul and Frank Wilstach, respectively, direct the tours of Richard Mansfield and Viola Allen.

The Sophie Brandt Opera Co., was organized by Claxton Wilstach this season, and he based the success of his venture in the feeling that Miss Sophie Brandt is the prettiest and the most charming singer on the stage to-day. Col. H. B. Savage felt the same confidence in her when he sent her to London, England, as the prima donna of "The Prince of Pilsen"—season before last. Last season Miss Brandt toured the country in "The Princess Chic." The opera "A Madcap Princess," is known to have been one of the greatest romantic light operas New York has ever seen.

It will be presented here with the original scenery and costumes, of gorgeous assortment, as were seen at the Knicker-Bocker Theatre of New York. It requires two baggage cars and two special coaches to transport the company, which will appear in all the leading cities of the South.

The cast supporting Miss Brandt in "A Madcap Princess" is an im-lin, Francis Stuart, Tom F. Callham, Abe Bllevue, Belle Elisler, Katherine Bonnington, Charlotte Twle and Lillian Taylor. The chorus will number thirty voices, and the music will be under the direction of Frederick Intropidi.

MABEL PAIGE IN NEW YORK.

The patrons of the Academy will have opportunity to see Miss Mabel Paige in a new play surrounded with a thoroughly competent cast and scenic effects that are perfect in every detail on Friday evening of this week for one night only.

"At Cosy Corners," the play that has been selected by Miss Paige for this season's tour fits her like a glove and gives this dainty, clever little actress a chance to show her real worth in it. You can see the advantages that are taken when one minute she brings the bright smile of happiness to you and the next sets your heart throbbing with emotion.

The play has been selected out of hundreds of others "Because" as she says "I don't have to act in it," and this has been the secret of this charming little actress's work. She never acts. She is always natural in whatever she does.

Miss Paige has always been a great idol of the lady audiences and it is because of her sweet, dainty and pretty mannerisms. That ladies crowd the theatre to see her and her magnificent gowns which are described by her feminine admirers as "Dreams of Daintiness." Seats will be on sale at Plummer's Thursday morning, the best in the house being only 75 cents.

NEXT LYCEUM NUMBER.

The Boston Orchestral Company will be at the Academy Tuesday night, coming as the second number in the present Lyceum course. It will be one of the very best attractions of its class ever given in Wilmington and is out of the ordinary, as it is an entire orchestra company. The programme will embrace both popular and classical music. Seats can be reserved Monday morning. The general admission will be 50 cents.

THE PERMANENT ENCAMPMENT.

Committee of Military Authorities Coming Here Next Week.

President W. B. Cooper, of the Merchants' Association, and local military officers have been advised that the committee appointed to select a permanent encampment site for the North Carolina National Guard, will be here Friday or Saturday morning of next week to look over the location at Wrightsville and to discuss the bid made by this city with the local authorities. The committee will probably come from Morehead City, which is the only legitimate bidder besides Wilmington. It is believed that Wilmington proposition is by far the most liberal of the two offered and that this city stands an excellent showing to secure the location. Not only a fine body of well adapted land is offered, but a substantial cash contribution also. Governor Glenn has given it out that Wilmington and all others shall have a "square deal" in this matter and that assertion is regarded as a bright augury for the acceptance of the bid made here.

—Senator Burton, of Kansas, has again, and for the third time, been indicted by a Federal grand jury. Three times ought to be out.—Rochester Herald.

WEDDING AT LAGRANGE.

Miss Wooten Bride of Popular Mount Olive Business Man.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mt. Olive, N. C., Nov. 16.—No more charming social event has occurred in Eastern Carolina than the wedding in the First Baptist church at LaGrange, N. C., Wednesday evening at 5:30 o'clock, of Mr. Robert J. Southerland, Jr., of Mount Olive, and Miss Eliza Rebecca Wooten, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Council S. Wooten, of LaGrange. The church edifice was taxed to its utmost with friends and admirers of the contracting parties, many being from a distance.

The church was brilliantly lighted and decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers, and its charming and exquisite appearance elicited the admiration of all. Half hour before the happy event the groomsmen assembled at the church and served as ushers for the occasion, while Mrs. Geo. Hadley rendered beautiful instrumental music and Miss Mabel Kennedy delighted the audience with a vocal selection, "Dearie."

Exactly at the appointed hour, to the strains of a march rendered by Mrs. Hadley, the bridal party assembled at the door and proceeded up the centre and side aisles as follows, the gentlemen on the left and right and the bridesmaids up the centre aisle. Miss Myrtle King, of Leaksville, with Mr. Eugene Hines, of Goldsboro; Miss Carrie Wooten, with Mr. Fred R. Mintz, of Mt. Olive; Miss Beulah Sandlin, of Washington, D. C., with Mr. Titus Harper, of Goldsboro; Miss Betsy Green with Mr. Clarence D. French, of Wilmington; Miss Lucy Baldwin, of Wilmington, with Mr. Edwin Wooten. Then up the centre aisle came the two little flower girls, Misses Mary Steele and Henrietta Kornegay, followed by the ring bearer, Master Robert Wooten. The bride then entered up the centre aisle leaning on the arm of the bridemaid, Miss Pattie Sandlin, of Washington, D. C. The groom entered with his best man, Mr. B. W. Southerland, from the rear entrance. From the instrument floated out the beautiful strains of "Hearts and Flowers" as the talented Dr. R. T. Vann, president of the Baptist Female College, of Raleigh, joined the two young hearts in the holy bonds of wedlock. The ring service was used. The party retired to the strains of Tannhauser's wedding march.

The bride was charmingly attired in white and pink messeline, chiffon and duchesse, with lace showers bouquet and carired Lillies of the Valley, her veil being caught with a diamond brooch. The lady attendants wore white French organdies, with pink girdles and carried pink chrysanthemums. The groomsmen were attired in full evening dress. The two little flower girls wore white organdie over silk with pink chrysanthemums and the ring bearer wore a black velvet suit and real lace.

After the wedding a brilliant reception was given the bridal party and invited guests at the beautiful home of Mrs. S. I. Wooten.

After the reception the bridal party left on a special train for Goldsboro, whence Mr. and Mrs. Southerland left on the northbound train for an extended bridal tour. After ten days they will make their home in Mount Olive. The friends and relatives of the groom were brought on a special train from Goldsboro to Mt. Olive.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

Flurry in New York Money Market Didn't Phaze Business.

New York, Nov. 17.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade to-morrom will say:

A temporary flurry in the money market had little deleterious effect in commemrcial channels, most reports indicating a further increase in the volume of business. Orders came forward freely for distant delivery and buyers experience much difficulty in making purchases for quick shipments. Wholesale trade in holiday goods is now well underway and retail distribution of seasonable merchandise responds to the generally lower temperature. There is still some delay in mercantile collections, especially at the South, where cottton is now being marketed freely. Traffic conditions has improved and railway earnings for the first week of November were 4.9 per cent. larger than in the corresponding time last year.

Failures this week number 240 against 217 last year.

BEEF TRUST INDICTMENTS.

Government Deny Garfield Bargained With Meat Packers.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Attorney-General Moody to-day made a statement with reference to the pleas in bar filed by the defendants in the indictments against the beef packers pending in the District Court at Chicago. The statement says that eight of the pleas are based upon the alleged conduct of Mr. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, in making an investigation of the affairs of the defendants in pursuance of the authority conferred upon him by law, the pleas in bar alleging that the packers were promised immunity from punishment in return for information and access to the books of the defendant corporations. Mr. Moody's statement says that the information was given voluntarily and continues:

"The government denies in point of fact that Mr. Garfield did compel the several defendants to attend and testify and produce rocuments before him, or that he did subpoena any of the defendants to appear before him and testify to produce documentary evidence; or that he waved the oath which he was authorized to require of them; or that he promised them any immunity whatever in the premises; or that any evidence obtained from the defendants was delivered to or used by the Department of Justice of the District Attorney before the grand jury, which found the indictment."

BLOODY TRAGEDY IN ARKANSAS.

Two Men Killed and Three Seriously Wounded.

Pocahontas, Ark., Nov. 17.—Biggers, a little town on the 'Frisco railroad, a few miles North of this city was the scene of a bloody tragedy last night. John Shipley and a young man named Dennis are dead, and Lee Jones, Deputy Sheriff "Jim" Wisner and City Marshal Jesse Johnston are seriously wounded.

Wisner's jaw was broken and one ear was shot off.

Shipley, Dennis and Jones are charged with being members of a gang of cotton thieves who had operated in the Cherokee country for some time. The trouble arose when the deputy sheriff and his posse arrested them. When told to halt they opened fire on the posse who returned the fusilade.

Mr. Dawson Latham Weds.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church at Florence, Mr. J. Dawson Latham, a former Wilmington boy, well and most favorably known here, was wedded to Miss Grace Naysmith, a popular young lady of Florence, the Rev. Mr. Clark, pastor of the church, officiating. A number of the friends and relatives of the young man, including his mother, Mrs. W. N. Cronly, Miss Elise Cronly and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Nash, of this city, were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Latham have gone on a bridal tour North, but will be at home in this city after Nov. 22nd.

At Carson, Nevada, yesterday J. P. Sevener, Fred Roberts, Al. Lindermm and T. S. Gorman were hanged for the murder of Jack Welch in Humboldt county in August, 1903. The execution took place in the shoeshop of the State prison.

Perhaps You Have

The Girl,

But How About

The Piano

Never since the history of Piano Business in Wilmington have the people had so many Artistic and Beautiful Instruments to select from, at almost all prices, as the stock we are showing at this time. If you are able and want the Best money will buy, WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO PRODUCE AN INSTRUMENT THE EQUAL, IN ALL THE POINTS OF PIANO PERFECTION, of Our

"Colonial" Stieff,

Which has been awarded 52 Grand Prizes, and pronounced by Artists to have reached the Highest Attainment possible in Piano building.

To those who desire a cheaper Instrument, we offer a very good and serviceable

PIANO for $200—$10 Down and $1.50 per Week.

Have others—some cheaper; some higher—according to quality.

Now, doesn't it strike you funny that people should send away for a Piano that they have never seen, when we are offering such good bargains right here in the city? Yet there are people in Wilmington—business men—who would rather send $400 to New York for a Stencil Piano than deal with a firm in North Carolina, which backs up its goods with an HONEST GUARANTEE. The late issue of "PIANO QUALITY" says: "THE MAIL ORDER HOUSES HANDLE STENCIL PIANOS EXCLUSIVELY, AND THOSE OF THE CHEAPEST KIND, MADE IN FACTORIES WHERE ONLY THE CHEAPEST GRADE OF PIANOS ARE PRODUCED. * * * * * * THEY ARE NOT MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS."

Better stick to Stieff, we've been making high-grade Pianos for over sixty-three years, and there are Stieff's still in use that were purchased in the last generation. It is those lasting qualities that has placed the STIEFF Piano in the front rank—IN A CLASS BY ITSELF.

We will be glad to have a visit from you, even if you come through curiosity only. All are welcome, and we will take pleasure in showing our stock; of which we are exceedingly proud.

SIX SOLID CAR LOADS FURNITURE

JUST RECEIVED!

We are pleased to announce that the people of Wilmington and surrounding country have an opportunity to buy furniture and house furnishings under circumstances far more favorable than ever before.

Five of the Six Car Loads of Furniture, recently purchased, have arrived and been unloaded; the sixth is on the way here. (There is no hot air in these statements. When we say car load, we mean a 40-foot car packed full of furniture, shipped and billed as such).

Read The Following:

Wilmington, N. C., November 17, 1905.

Henderson Cole, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

FIRST—That he is Secretary, Treasurer and General Manager of the Wilmington Furniture Co., with stores at No. 111 Market Street and No. 106 North Water Street.

SECOND—That he bought, direct from the manufacturers, the Six Car Loads of Furniture above referred to; that he bought these goods at the lowest Cash price obtainable in large quantities.

THIRD—That every dollar has been paid already for these purchases, taking advantage of the Cash discounts.

FOURTH—That ninety per cent. of our stock is bright new goods, just from the manufacturers.

Wilmington, N. C., November 17, 1905.

This is to certify that The Wilmington Furniture Co., has just shown me freight receipts for Five Solid Car Loads of Furniture received by them since November 14, 1905, and that they have exhibited to me a bill of lading covering another solid Car shipment, which left the factory November 14th.

C. D. WEEKS,
Notary Public.

We never will make a statement in print we cannot verify by the records. Every person acquainted with business methods, knows that goods bought in large quantities, for the Cash are bought cheaper than in small quantities on long time. The jobber's discount, which we received on account of our large purchase; the Cash discount for paying Spot Cash; the saving in freight by getting car-load rates, enables us to put our goods in our houses at from 20 to 35 per cent. less than it could be done under other conditions. This saving we will not add to our profits, but give to the purchaser. We invite you to call and see our new goods and get our close Cash prices and see how we will save you money.

WILMINGTON FURNITURE CO.

A FOXY FATHER

[Original.]

"Louis," said the elder Olmsted, Winifred loves you."

"Me, father?"

"Yes, you. You have been very stupid not to notice it."

Winifred Howe had been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted and treated as a daughter. Louis pondered for awhile at his father's information, then asked:

"What do you want me to do, father?"

"What your inclination prompts."

After more pondering Louis said: "Winifred is very lovely. Perhaps we shall make a match in time."

Fish easily caught are not considered desirable, and Louis treated his foster sister indifferently, while she, poor girl, waited patiently for a loving word. Louis was spending his vacation at home before his last year in the law department of his alma mater and in the autumn returned to his studies. On his departure the family parted with him at the door, Winifred among them. When it came her turn to clasp his hand she did so without pressure and with averted eyes. Mr. Olmsted, Sr., accompanied his son to the carriage, but made no mention of what Louis knew was a thwarted desire.

Some time after Louis' return to the law school he received a letter from his father containing the following paragraph:

You may remember that I desired a match between you and Winifred. This was because I wished at my death that you should inherit the homestead and my other property without dividing it. Winifred, however, has assured me that she will in no case accept any legacy from me, and I think she will marry a young man who has recently made her acquaintance—poor, but very promising. Therefore you need not trouble yourself any further about her and consider my implied request withdrawn.

A few days after the receipt of this letter Louis Olmsted appeared one morning at home. His father manifested surprise at seeing him and asked him what brought him back in term time.

"This matter of Winifred. You see, father, it places me in rather an unpleasant position. I appear as one who doesn't fall in with your desires, as accepting all of a fortune of which Winifred should have half and of turning away a girl who you assured me loved me."

"You are borrowing trouble, my boy, though your feelings do you credit. You have nothing to worry about. We can't force Winifred to accept what she will not accept, and since you don't want her I know you are not a 'dog in the manger' to keep any one else from getting her."

"Who is the—fellow?"

"What fellow?"

"She's going to marry."

"Oh, I have no authority from her to speak of that. It's only a matter of observation with me."

"You may be mistaken."

"Certainly."

"Perhaps you were mistaken when you told me that Winifred was in love with me."

"Quite likely."

"You must certainly be wrong in one case or the other."

"That's a logical deduction. I see that you're profiting by your studies. You'll make an excellent lawyer."

Louis was walking back and forth, evidently much dissatisfied with the situation.

"Where is Winifred?"

"She's away at present."

"Away?"

"Certainly. I said so."

"Where?"

"On a visit to her Aunt Caroline."

Louis knew that this was a day's journey. He muttered something between his teeth.

"Come, Louis," said his father, "you have done very wrong to leave your studies. You must go back at once."

A time table was produced, and it was found that a night train would leave in half an hour. The young man would just have time to reach it. He bade his father a sullen goodby and started for the train. Mr. Olmsted stood looking down the street after him.

"Good!" he muttered, going into the house. "He can't go back to college that way."

The next day Winifred received word that her foster brother was waiting to see her in the drawing room.

"Why, Louis," she said, surprised, "what brings you here? Anything the matter at home?"

"Matter? I'm afraid I'm too late."

"Too late for what?"

"To tell you that I love you and want you to be my wife."

Winifred stood gazing first at him, then at the floor. Louis put his arm about her and, drawing her to him, kissed her. He was filled with a wild joy when he found that she did not resist.

"Why have you done this so suddenly? Why come here to speak?"

"Well, father, he said"—

"What?"

"Oh, father's always thinking you're going to marry some one. He's made no end of blunders about you."

Late that night Louis took a train directly back to college. While waiting at the station a train pulled out, and on the platform stood a friend of Mr. Olmsted, Sr.

"Hello, Louis!" he called. "What are you doing here? Going back to college? I'm going home. I'll see your father and tell him I met you."

"Don't you do any such thing!" called Louis.

Long after Louis and Winifred had been married at a family gathering this friend spoke of his meeting with Louis. Louis and Winifred glanced sharply at each other. As for Mr. Olmsted, Sr., he simply grunted:

"Humph!" LENA M. BROOKS.

Might Be, but Not Wisely.

"Do you consider him a man who can be trusted?"

"Well," replied the Boston purist, "I suppose he can be trusted, but there would be considerable risk attached to the proceeding."

The Book That Held Him.

"Yes, I picked up this book last night, and I never budged out of my chair until 4 o'clock this morning."

"Goodness! Was it that interesting?"

"No; but I didn't wake up until that time."

A SCOUT'S FEAT

[Original.]

John Redshaw is an octogenarian and a veteran of the war with Mexico. He told me this story one winter evening while we were sitting over a fire blazing on the hearth.

"I was not in the army," he said. "I was a scout. Born and bred in Texas, where powder and ball were of more importance than bread and meat, I was as familiar with firearms as most men are with what they get to eat. Besides this familiarity, I had a natural aptitude for quick and straight shooting. It has always been a mystery to me why soldiers are trained to everything except marksmanship. But they are getting more of that nowadays.

"When General Zachary Taylor was on the Rio Grande I was with him as one of his scouts. While Scott, who had landed at Vera Cruz, was fighting his way to the City of Mexico he sent up to Taylor for re-enforcements. They were to be furnished, and I was sent ahead to give notice of their coming. I carried dispatches from Taylor to Scott, was not in uniform and if captured would have been garroted or shot by the Mexicans for a spy. I made the most of my journey safely, when I was caught in a trap.

"I reached a point within ten miles of Scott's lines at nightfall and, fearful of losing my way in the dark, concluded to lie down where I was and wait till morning. I had crossed a stream, one of the tributaries to the Rio Grande, and bivouacked on a knoll on the south bank, having picketed my horse below. I didn't light a fire, but just lay down on the grass, with the stock of my rifle in my right hand, the same rifle I had used for years and which I considered a part of me.

"It was broad daylight when I awoke. I had slept soundly and possibly might not have awakened when I did had it not been for the sound of a voice. Turning my head without rising, I saw five Mexicans riding single file on the opposite shore for the ford by which I had crossed. There was no doubt about their being Mexicans, for they wore sombreros, jackets and slashed trousers, with no end of filigree and jingling spurs. Besides, they were talking in the Mexican jargon, which I could partly understand.

"I cast my eyes about me quickly to take in the situation and was horrified to see that if I escaped it must be over open ground. I knew my horse, who had come a long distance, wasn't up to the work, and there seemed nothing for it but either to give myself up or fight the five men. The war proved, especially at Buena Vista, that one United States man was worth four Mexicans, and with my marksmanship I thought I ought to be worth five. At any rate, I determined to try it. If I could kill one or two of them by rapid firing I hoped the others would run.

"There's no telling what surprised men will do. These men didn't do as I expected at all. I waited till they had got into the ford, for I knew that men crossing a stream would be more disconcerted than when on dry land. As soon as they were all wading in water up to the bellies of their horses I aimed at the first man's head and fired. He pitched forward into the river. His horse stopped, thus blocking the ford. The remaining Mexicans for a moment did not seem to know what to do. Those were days when a rifle once discharged must be loaded again, and the same was true of pistols. I had two pistols in my saddle bolsters—big fellows—and one at each hip. Of course when I picketed my horse I kept all my arms about me. In six seconds after my rifle cracked a pistol shot brought down the second Mexican. He slid out of his saddle backward, demoralizing the man behind him, who seemed to realize that his turn was next, and it paralyzed him. At any rate, he sat rigid to be shot at, though the man behind him began to try to turn his horse about. I dropped the third man with the same certainty as I had dropped the others, for you see there were five Mexicans, and I had only five shots without reloading. So I couldn't afford to waste any bullets.

"The fourth man's way backward was blocked by the fifth, who was too badly frightened to stir. But before I could fire again both men dropped from their horses into the water, and both made for the shore. Somehow they got behind their horses, and I couldn't get a bead on them, and, getting under an overhanging tree shielded by the branches, they gained the shore. However, one of them was silly enough to expose himself for an instant, and I dropped him.

"This left one Mexican, whose arms had doubtless been soaked, and three horses that had come over to me. I knew enough Spanish to call out to the fifth man to surrender (for I wanted a guide for the rest of my journey), which he gladly did, and when I had seen him deposit his arms on the ground I ordered him to catch the remaining horses, mount one and lead the other across.

"He did so, and I now had my guide and five horses to pick from to take me on. The Mexican had a holy horror of a man who had killed his four companions, and I had no trouble whatever in securing his services. Indeed, I told him that before I was captured I would send him to rejoin his friends, and this made him especially careful that I should avoid his countrymen. Indeed, on one occasion, when we were about to meet a band of them, he seemed to dread it as much as I.

"I rode safely into the American lines, delivered my dispatches and"—

"Was offered a commission?"

"No; I got $100 in gold."

J. FEBIGER EARLE.

The Castle In Chess.

The castle in chess owes its shape and name to a misunderstanding of its old Italian name, "rocco," as if it were "rocca" a castle or fortress. The words rocco, rook and roc (French) come from rohk, the old Persian name of the piece, which was in the shape of an elephant. Curiously enough, the elephant carried a little castle on his back, and the position of the piece on the board seemed suitable for a castle.

By Jupiter, Take This.

The letter "R" at the head of all prescriptions is derived from the Latin word recipe, the imperative meaning "take." The little dart over the tail of the "R" is the symbol of Jove, or the Latin god Jupiter, and invests the writer with his authority—by the power of Jupiter. Therefore the sign properly reads, "By Jupiter, take this."

FRENCH COMMANDER ARRESTED.

Will Have to Serve Fifteen Days for Misconduct.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Paris, Nov. 17.—The council of ministers at a meeting to-day decided to inflict fifteen days arrest on General Brugere, commander of the army, for marking public details of a conference which he had with the minister of war relative to the controversy between General Brugere and General Percin, who was chief of staff under General Andre, the former minister of war. General Brugere gave out a statement saying that he had refused the War Minister's request to shake hands with General Percin. The measure is one of extraordinary severity against the head of the army.

Special Rates and Trains to Norfolk.

The Seaboard announces account of the great annual football game between the Universities of North Carolnia and Virginia, at Norfolk, Thanksgiving Day, November 30th, they will sell round trip tickets at rate of one first class fare plus 25c., from Wilmington, Hamlet, Charlotte and intermediate points, on November 29th, and for trains scheduled to arrive in Norfolk before noon of the 30th, limited until December 2nd.

To accommodate travel from Charlotte, Wilmington and intermediate stations, extra sleeper will be provided on train No. 34 from Charlotte or Hamlet, Wednesday night November 29th, if advance request for reservations will justify it.

In addition to above they will operate special train from Raleigh and Durham the morning of the 30th, leaving Raleigh 7:00 A. M., Durham 6:50 A. M., returning same night, with round trip rate of $3.00.

Grand Stand admission tickets to the game are now on sale at Raleigh, Charlotte and Wilmington Seaboard ticket offices, and will be up until November 20th, on and after which date they will be sold in Norfolk. Better secure them in advance.

Tickets to Foot-Ball Game in Norfolk, Va.

There seems to be some impression that grand-stand tickets to above game, which are on sale at our Charlotte, Wilmington, Raleigh, Durham and Henderson offices, will not be sold to people who patronize the Seaboard Air Line to Norfolk. This is a mistake, as the tickets will be sold to any one. We simply selling them in North Carolina for the Lafayette Field Association.

These tickets will be returned to Norfolk on the 20th and it is certainly to the interest of those who expect to attend the game, to purchase their tickets prior to this time, as the indications point to a record-breaking crowd and those who delay getting seats will be put to considerable trouble in getting them if they wait until arrival at Norfolk.

Miss Laura Clark will leave for Norfolk this week to be a guest of Miss Susie Hitch, who has many admirers in this city.

* * * * *

Miss Mildred Johnson, of Brooklyn, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. B. Davis, 511 Third street, North.

* * * * *

The Misses Laura and Helen Clark and Miss Susie Hitch, of Norfolk, will attend a dance at Chapel Hill on the evening of December 1st.

* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jay MacMillan are expected to return the last of the week, and will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. MacMillan, 414 Dock street.

* * * * *

Miss Lilla Bellamy, who spent the Summer at the Monterey, Blue Ridge Summit, and who has since made a charming visit in New York, returned to Wilmington Thursday.

* * * * *

Miss Agnes Seabreeze who has been out West attending the marriage of a friend is expected to return to the city this week and will be located in the Deans home on South Fifth street.

* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Luther J. Tucker have returned from their bridal trip and are located at 215 Walnut street. Mr. Tucker's bride was a decided favorite of her acquaintances in Sumter, S. C. where she resided.

* * * * *

Miss Mary Allan Short, of Lake Waccamaw, was in the city last week, much to the pleasure of a large circle of friends. Miss Short came to be present at the marriage of her friends and to attend the performances at the Academy.

* * * * *

The corps of officers of the U. S. S. Seminole and at Fort Caswell are quite an addition to the social circle in which they move. Their presence, and that of their wives, at dances and other social functions is enjoyed by many.

* * * * *

Miss Anita DeRosset entertained the card club, of which she is a member on Friday evening, at which dainty light refreshments were served. Miss DeRosset's guests spent a charming evening, the memory of which will be cherished.

* * * * *

Miss Lillian Slocomb, whose visits are always a pleasure, is in town this week. Miss Slocomb came to attend the attractions at the Academy of Music and the dances given complimentary to the Peck-Davis and West-Green bridal parties.

* * * * *

Mr. Oscar P. Peck, who is located at Dublin, Ga., is giving his friends the pleasure of a visit of a few days. Mr. Peck came to attend the marriage of his sister, and his acquaintances will regret to have him return to his adopted home.

* * * * *

The younger members of the Masonic fraternity contemplate giving a Masonic dance during the Xmas holidays. There will be some novel features and the entertainment promises to be unique in character.

* * * * *

The architectural beauty of the handsome home, being built for Mrs. Preston L. Bridgers, is being developed, as the structure of Indiana lime stone progresses. When completed, the building will be one of, or perhaps, the most imposing residence in the city.

* * * * *

Miss Sallie McRee, who takes a leading role in the "Madcap Princess," is a young lady who is well known in this her native town. Miss McRee's many friends will no doubt give her an ovation gratifying to her professional ambition, at the Academy of Music Wednesday afternoon and evening.

* * * * *

Mr. Edward G. Meares, of New York, was in the city Thursday last, to attend the marriage of his relative, Dr. Thos. M. Green. Mr. Meares is the younger son of the late Dr. William B. Meares. His occasional visits to his relatives and friends are a source of gratification to them.

* * * * *

A disquieting rumor to the effect that the Rev. Richard W. Hogue "is considering a call" to a very large parish in another State is, we are pleased to say, without foundation. Mr. Hogue is so much respected and beloved here that the mere suggestion of his leaving is looked upon in the light of a calamity.

* * * * *

There has been very general comment on the many handsome gowns which have been worn at the marriages, receptions, and dances the past week. The society editor would not dare undertake a description of any of them. All he knows is, that the tout ensemble is pleasing, the general effect charming, and the graceful wearers are very becoming to the gowns.

* * * * *

A nice building, in which there will be a beautiful hall, is being erected at Fort Caswell. It is not improbable that one or two dances will be given at the post during the season. Eight of the ten officers are married and the ladies of the post have a card club which entertains twice a month, adding much to the pleasure of life at the Fort. It is a matter of regret that the means of communication between the city and fort are such as to prevent closer social relations.

* * * * *

The football game at Norfolk between the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia on Thanksgiving Day is an absorbing theme of conversation for many. Wilmington will be represented by a bevy of young ladies who are ardent champions of the blue and white. Of those who will attend the game, are the Misses Mary Calder, Bessie Gore, Laura and Helen Clark, Elovine, Elizabeth and Susie Burruss and Margaret and Lucy Bridgers. Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, who is now on a visit in Eastern Carolina to Mr. Martin's sister, will also attend the game.

Formal invitations to the series of germans to be given during the season of 1905-1906 on the evening of the fourth Wednesday in each month have been issued. These functions are a source of great pleasure to the members of the Club and their guests and the present season promises to be even more brilliant than ever. The patronesses are announced as follows: Mrs. Clayton Giles, Mrs. E. W. VanC. Lucas, Mrs. T. M. Emerson, Mrs. J. W. Carmichael, Mrs. Hugh MacRae, Mrs. J. V. Grainger, Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mrs. D. H. Lippitt, Mrs. John D. Bellamy, Mrs. W. A. Dick, Mrs. George Rountree, Mrs. Donald MacRae, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and Mrs. C. W. Bidgood.

The beautiful November day attracted many to the Country Club grounds yesterday afternoon. For the convenience of members and their guest a special car was sent out by the Suburban line. A practice tourney was played in which there were twelve contestants, Mr. Robt. H. Gwaltney winning the game, and prize. The tournament will be continued next Saturday, both matches being for practice preparatory for the tournament on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30th. The attendance of ladies was unusually large and the "Tea" served by them was much enjoyed. An expert player and instructor of some repute, who has been at Poland Springs during the past Summer will arrive tomorrow and will spend a month here. It is expected the scores of last Fall will be reduced this season.

From the Baltimore Sun of yesterday we clip the following which is of much interest here:

"The Hotel Belvedere was the scene of a brilliant ball last evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Elliott in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Elizabeth Preston Elliott.

"It was the first large entertainment of the season in local society and was given in Southern style. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott are from Wilmington, N. C., and have resided in Baltimore but a short time. Miss Elliott is an unusually attractive girl and was introduced to Newport society this Summer at the ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York, for their daughter, Miss Sadie Jones.

"The ballroom floor of the Belvedere was thrown open to the guests and was elaborately decorated with palms and cut flowers. The corridors were lined with palms and other greens and the anterooms were decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The prevailing color was pink. A lattice of green and pink hollyhocks concealed the orchestra at one end of the ballroom and smilax was twined around the chandeliers.

"In the banquet hall, where a seated supper was served at midnight, each table was arranged with mounds of pink roses and palms were banked at one end of the room.

"The cotillon favors were exceptionally pretty and carried out the same color scheme of pink.

"Figures characteristic of Southern dancing were introduced in the cotillon. Mr. Allmund B. Elliott, brother of Miss Elliott, dancing with Miss Sadie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York, led from one end of the ballroom and Mr. Milton C. Elliott, of Norfolk, dancing with Miss Elizabeth Elliott, from the other. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott received near the entrance. Mrs. Elliott wore a handsome gown of cream-colored lace over satin of the same shade, spangled in silver and diamonds. Miss Elliott wore an exquisite costume of white tulle and satin, combined with lace, and held one of the numerous bouquets sent her.

"She was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Mardita Elliott, Miss Sadie Jones, of New York; Miss Anne Clarke, of Cooperstown, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth Shotter, of Savannah, and Miss Nellie Hamilton, of Petersburg, Va.

"Miss Jones wore a handsome gown of mauve net over pink taffeta, elaborately trimmed with silver, and carried orchids.

"Miss Shotter was attired in a costume of pink chiffon, and carried pink roses."

Dr. Pride Thomas, of this city, was one of the out-of-town guests.

—A new bank has been opened in Warrenton and starts off with a good prospect of success.

—Rev. George R. Stuart, of Tennessee, has closed his rival at Newbern. The number of converts will reach 300 or more.

—Raleigh Stockholders of the new Republican paper, The Tar Heel, at Greensboro, report that T. B. Eldridge will be made general manager, and R. J. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, secretary and threasurer. Geo. S. Bradshaw is editor, for the present.

—By order of the Governor a special term of Warren Superior Court will convene December 11th, to try Hicks and Giles, the negro who on November 4th killed Mr. W. G. King, of Vaughan. Two other prisoners now in jail will also be tried. Judge Long will preside at this term of the court.

—Raleigh correspondent, Nov. 17th: Norfolk capitalists, and also syndicates of Goldsboro men, are here before the State board of education, bidding for the State swamp lands, known as Angola bay, in Jones and Onslow counties, cotaining 44,000 acres. Other syndicates also are here bidding for the lands in Currituck county, which are being examined by the board.

—The United State steamer MacGregor arrived here to-day with United State engineers, Col. S. S. Leach, Captain Flagler and Captain Sowell, who are to examine the proposed route for the inland water-way between Norfolk and Beaufort. They were met by a committee of business men and city officials who entertained them at a dinner at the Chattawka and this evening a conference was held in the city hall in which plans were discussed for the opening of this new route. Local merchants are very desirous to have this route, as it will prove very beneficial to the interests of Eastern Carolina. Congressmen Small and Thomas and Senator Simmons are here attending the conference and their pledges have been obtained to work for the measure in Congress. The engineers report the matter feasible, but give no information as to their decision.

BRONCHITIS

Duruggist Robert R. Bellamy Tells the People Quickest Means to Cure It.

Asked one day in his store the question, "What is good for bronchitis?" Mr. Bellamy our well known druggist, answered, "For years old fashioned cod liver oil has been known to possess the most remarkable curative and healing properties for throat, bronchial, and lung troubles of anything know to medicine, but on account of the grease which enveloped its curative principles, it has been impossible for many people to take enough of it into their systems to combat a thoroughly settled disease without clogging the system and upsetting the stomach.

"Now, however," continued Mr. Bellamy, "we have Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and physicians agree that it is the greatest cure for all throat, bronchial and lung troubles known to medicine."

Miss Anna Ray writes us that after suffering for five years with bronchitis, and trying all kinds of medicines without relief, Vinol cured her, and we have hundreds of just such letters.

We wish every person suffering from chronic colds, coughs, bronchitis, and every aged, weak, or convalescent person who needs a healing, strength-creating and blood-making tonic would try Vinol on our guarantee to return the purchase money if it fails." Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.

EVER WATCHFUL.

A Little Care will Save Many Wilmington Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions.

See that they have the amber hue of health;

The discharges not excessive or infrequent;

Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

Wilmington testimony proves it.

P. C. Le Moyne, contractor, of 223 North Seventh street, says: "I did not know that the trouble with my back was caused by my kidneys not acting properly, although I noticed the secretions from those organs were dark and very irregular, sometimes free and at other times scanty. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I was surprised at the result, for I have not had backache since I used them."

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sunday Morning, Nov. 19.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THE COAST LINE FUGITIVE

Gainesville Ticket Agent Arrested in Canada—Embiezzled $40,000 From Coast Line and Southern.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—James M. Stobhar, former joint agent of the Atlantic Coast Line and Florida Southern Railway in Gainesville, Fla., was arrested here today. The charge is that of stealing $7,500 but auditors who have been through his books declare that he is short $40,000. He was bonded in the American Surety Company, of New York, and it was this company which caused his arrest.

SITUATION IN ST. PETERSBURG.

Strike Called Off—Strike Carried Out Object.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—Midnight.—The railroad strike was today formerly declared off beginning at noon on Monday. The workmen's council held a protracted session tonight and hotly discussed the question of the abandonment of the strike. Many of those present, especially the leaders of the extremist faction advocated a continuance of the strike declaring that only war to the knife with the government was possible, and urged that the strike be enforced until the Cronstadt mutineers were unconditionally pardoned and martial law in Poland abolished. The ortors of the other faction resented sharply the insinuations of treachery and poltroonery and warned their opponents that they ran the danger of being deserted and entirely discredited if they persisted in rodering a continuance of the strike.

It is reported that another manifesto promising a general zemstvo and local municipal government to Poland may be issued shortly.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.—3:35 A. M.—The workmen's council at 3 o'clock this morning decided to cal off the industrial strike Monday at noon, claiming that a great victory had been achieved and that the lives of 1,600 Cronstadt mutineers have been saved.

INTER-CHURCH CONFERENCE.

Plan of Federation of Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterians.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 18.—The business committee of the inter-church conference on federation announced the draft of a plan for church federation at the conference in Carnegie hall to-day. The plan will be acted upon Monday. It provides for a federal council of Protestant churches to meet every four years, the first meeting to be held December 1, 1908. The name proposed for the body is the General Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Among the bodies, having membership are the Baptist and Methodist churches, South, the negro Baptist and Methodist church, the Presbyterian churches and the Protestant Episcopal church. The plan further provides:

"The Federal council shall have no authority over the constituent bodies adhering to it; but its province shall be limited to the expression of its counsel and the recommending of a course of action in matters of common interest to the churches, local councils and individual Christians. It has no authority to draw up a common creed, or form of government or of worship, or in any way to limit the full autonomy of the Christian bodies adhering to it."

PRINCE LOUIS WAS THREATENED

Received Anonymous Letters That He Would be Blown Up.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 18.—Now that the stay of Prince Louis of Battenberg in this city is so nearly over, the fact was allowed to become known today that the Prince has received numerous anonymous letters threatening his life and that he deemed them serious enough to call them to the attention of the police department and also ask protection. In compliance with the request the force of detectives assigned to the Prince was doubled. One of the letters informed the Prince that an effort would be made to blow him up with dynamite.

Prince Louis announced this afternoon that he had decided not to sail until Monday morning, instead of tomorow as at first ararnged. Delay in coaling the fleet is the cause. The Prince today issued a farewell message to the American people, saying it was difficult to express adequately how much he had enjoyed his visit.

REBELLIOUS PLOT IN CUBA.

Gathering Arms of Improved Patern to Overthrow Government.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Havana, Nov. 18.—The truth in the reports of plots to overthrow the government was revealed in part to-day. The government received a confidential report to effect that an ostensibly vacant house in the Cerro Suburb was being utilized as a secret depository for arms for the union and ordered the police to investigate. The police found 41 rifles, 21 carbines, 35 packages each containing a thousand cartridges and some barrels filled with ammunition and acountrements. Considerable suspicion is directed toward the liberal and radical leaders. The police are searching for the party who rented the house in which the arms and ammunition were seized, but no arrests have as yet been reported.

It is said that other instalments of arms are hidden in various places in the island. The rifles seized to-day were new and of costly pattern.

PANAMA CANAL TO BE SEA LEVEL

So Board of Consulting Engineers Decided at Their Meeting Yesterday

CONGRESS FINALLY DECIDES

Sea-Level Canal Will Cost $100,000,000 More Than Lock Canal and Will Require Several More Years in Building.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 18.—By a vote of 8 to 5 today the board of consulting engineers of the isthmian canal commisison placed itself upon record as favoring the construction of the Panama canal on the sea level. This decision represents the outcome of nearly three months hard work. Early in September the engineers gathered from all parts of the world to assist the American engineers in the decision of the momentous question of constructing the Panama canal, at sea level or at a greater altitude involving a system of locks.

The foreigners came to Washington absolutely without instructions from their own governments and without bias, determined to be guided to their decision solely by the facts to be presented to them. It was not until last Tuesday that anything in the nature of a decisive vote was taken and that after all was an indirect test. Just what that proposition was cannot be stated with absolute certainty, but it is conjectured that the issue was whether or not a lock canal of a certain type should be constructed. At any rate the vote disclosed the fact that a majority of the eight American members under the lead of General Abbott was strongly in favor of a lock canal.

The foreigners were against the particular type mentioned in the proposition, but it was not clear that at that moment they were opposed to the whole proposition of a lock canal. The real test came today and the time between Tuesday and the meeting this morning was consumed in some very strong presentations on the part of the majority of the American delegates to influence their foreign colleagues to accept one of the other lock propositions. The Americans, however, were not unanimous, for there is reason to believed that three of their number, probably General Davis, Mr. Parsons and Mr. Burr, joined the foreign delegates in this last vote, which recorded the board as favoring the sea level canal.

The decision was reached about noon and thereby the board practically concluded its labors. There will be a few more meetings next week, simply to deal with small details and to put into permanent form, the results of the board's protracted meetings. The foreign delgates desire to leave for their European homes by the 27th instant. To accommodate them in this, the full board has agreed that they may conclude some purely formal work at a special meeting to be held in Paris in December or January. It is expected that one of the American members of the board will go to Paris to wind up this business, all of which must be done before the final report of the board can be regarded as complete and ready for submission to the Isthmian Canal Commission. The commission in turn must record its own judgment upon the conclusions reached by the board of engineers and there is even now a belief current that the judgment will be adverse to the board's plan. However, there are two more important steps, at either of which there may be great changes proposed, for the commission must pass the plans and its own recommendations to the President, who in turn must stamp them with his own approval or disapproval and forward them to Congress, which after all will be the court of last resort as betwen the sea level and lock canal projects; simply through the fact that additional legislation will be necessary if a sea level canal is to be built, for the board finds that such a canal will cost from $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 more than the cheapest practical lock canal and will consume from five to seven years more in the construction.

Work on the Canal.

St. Louis, Nov. 18.—Secretary of War, William H. Taft, to-night was the guest of honor at the monthly banquet of the St. Louis Commercial Club. President Charles Nagel presided and introduced Secretary Taft who spoke on the Panama canal.

Secretary Taft said that the Panama Canal was 46 miles in length from shore line to shore line, and gave a history of the work on it by the French, described the physical conditions, and detailed the purchase by the United States, and told what had been done by this government towards beginning the stupendous work of digging and constructing the great waterway across the isthmus, to connect the waters of the Atlantic and the Pacific. Among other things in a very lengthy speech Secretary Taft said:

"Nearly all the labor upon the isthmus is now negro labor from the West India Islands. It is very poor. The question remains to be decided whether we shall attempt to secure Chinese or Japanese labor. It has been held by the Attorney-General that the Federal eight-hour law applies to those employed by the Canal Commisison. I was at first disposed to think its effect would be good, because we could have three shifts every twenty-four hours. I am assured, however, by Mr. Stevens and Governor Magoon that its enforcement only intereferes with good work. Petitions are being filed by all foreigners and Americans asking that its operation in the zone be amended. There is practically no limit to the negro labor we can obtain from the West Indian and Caribbean Islands, but its efficiency is so low that we may have to call in Asiatics. Another year will show more facts upon which a labor policy may be based. The fact that no white labor can be found to stand work in the tropical sun ought to remove the question from the forum of ordinary trade-union labor discussion and lead to a solution free from considerations which might properly have great weight in a more temperate climate and in condition less resembling a national emergency. I visited the isthmus a year ago and again this year. I am able to see a marked difference, even in outward appearance, and to say with much emphasis and certainty that real work has been done and is being done. The effect of better housing for employes on the canal, the influence of the successful efforts of the sanitation department to stamp out yellow fever, the confidence of the American subordinate engineers, foremen, clerks, rodmen, and others that there is a competent and skillful head to the enterprise in Mr. Shonts, knowing what is being done in each department, and co-ordinating all departments, tends to give an atmosphere of conscious progress, individual interest, and patriotic pride in the great risk of a great nation. The Panamanians feel the change and are accordingly happy and contented with things as they are."

NORWAY'S NEW KING ACCEPTS.

Will Adopt Name of Haakon VII—People Satisfied.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Christiania, Nov. 18.—The words of President Berner after the Storthing's unanimous election of Prince Charles of Denmark as King of Norway this evening, "this decision of the Storthing is the keystone of our independence which has been constructed this year, appropriately" expressed the feeling animating all Norwegians, Republicans or otherwise, at the conclusion of the long struggle leading to the enrolling of Norway in the European States. The socialist pastor Erkesen and State Advocate Castberg emphasized the unity of national conditions by sinking party differences in speeches cordially supporting the government.

After the elction telegrams were immediately dispatched to Prince Charles, King Christian and the Danish premier, and the sitting was adjourned until 8:45 o'clock when President Berner read the following telegram from Prince Charles:

"With the permission of the King, my illustrious grand-father, I accept my election as King of Norway and will adopt the name Haakon VII., conferring upon my son the name Olaf. My wife and I call down on the Norwegian people God's richest blessings and will consecrate our future life to the country's glory and prosperity."

The president of the chamber then called for cheers for King Haakon. These were given enthusiastically and the sitting closed.

HEARST-McCLELLAN CONTEST.

Change of Votes Will Make Election Close.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 18.—The counting of so-called void and protested ballots in the first assembly district of Manhattan was completed before Justice Geigerich in the Supreme Court today, and as a result both the McClellan and Hearst lawyers who were present claim slight gains. It was impossible to arrive at the exact result because it is not known how many of the ballots had been counted by the election inspectors, November 7. One of the lawyers representing Mayor McClellan, said the mayor had gained ten votes, while a Hearst attorney claimed a gain of twelve. Each claim is not disputed. It was said by members of Tammany Hall Law Committee tonight that the canvass of the general returns in one-fifth of the entire city showed a net gain for Hearst of 150 votes, and that if this rate was maintained the plurality of 3,000 given Mayor McClellan would be reduced by but a few hundred votes.

Justice Glegerich of the Supreme Court in examining the protested ballots decided that all ballots marked with a cross in the Jerome circle and in the circle of any party column were valid. The decision will add very largely to the vote cast for Mr. Jerome.

ANTI-CHILD LABOR MOVEMENT.

Headquarters Will Be Removed From Charlotte to Atlanta.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 18.—It was announced today that Atlanta, Ga., has been chosen as the Southern headquarters of the national child labor committee. Charlotte, N. C., has been the Southern headquarters of this committee up to the present time. The new office will be in charge of Dr. A. J. McKelway, assistant secretary of the national committee. In anouncing this change the trustees said that it was made "in view of the urgent need for legislation in Georgia in response to the demands of the leading citizens of that State, which came so near successful fruition at the last session of the Georgia Legislature." In their report the trustees also said:

"At least two million children under 16 years of age in the United States are employed for wages most of whom ought to be in school. Child labor laws lack uniformity in different States, and many of them are only crude beginnings at legislation; nearly all are poorly enforced."

JEWISH RELIEF FUND GROWS.

Southern Express Company Donates $1,000—Other Subscriptions.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Savanah, Nov. 18.—Mayor Myers today received a telegram from Superintendent J. S. Hockaday, of the Southern Express Company, announcing the contribution by the company of $1,000 of the relief fund for the Jews who are being oppressed in Russia. The telegram which was from Florida where leading express officials are on a tour of that State stated that the contribution was authorized by the president and the chairman of the board who desired that it be made through Mayor Myers.

Mayor Myers replied expressing his appreciation of the contribution.

SPRUCE PINE CATASTROPHE.

No One Killed by Explosion Friday Night.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Bristol, Va., Nov. 18.—The reports of the powder magazine explosion at Spruce Pine, N. C., were much exaggerated. The real damage done was the destruction of the small frame building and the loss of $1,500 worth of powder owned by the South and Wetsern railway company. No one was killed. The explosion was at Camp No. 2, ten miles south of Spruce Pine and was caused by forest fires which enveloped the magazine.

GREEN-GAYNOR MAKING FIGHT

Grand Jury Finds Two Additional Indictments in Federal Court at Savannah

DRAGNET OF FOUR CHARGES

Famous Prisoners Were In Court With Their Lawyers to Fight the Case—Charges in Connection With Carter's Embezzlment.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Savnnah, Nov. 18.—Two additional indictments charging embezzlement and receiving the money of the United States that was alleged to have been embezzled by ex-Captain Oberlin M. Carter, were returned in the Federal court to-night against Benjamin D. Greene, John F. Gaynor, E. M. H. Gaynor; William T. Gaynor, and Michael A. Connolly.

The two former indictments against the prisoners were for conspiracy to defraud the United States and for presenting false accounts. They were covered by the extradition charge designated in the treaty as "participation in fraud by an agent."

The defendants were also extradited from Canada on the two other charges which were participation in embezzlement and for receiving money knowing it to have been embezzled. As they had not previously been indicted upon these charges, Special Assistant United States Attorney General Marion Erwin thought it wise to fortify the government by presenting the accused on the two additional charges. They now stand charged as follows:

First—Conspiracy to defraud the United States government.

Second—Presenting false accounts.

Third—Embezzlement.

Fourth—Receiving money that belonged to the government, knowing it to have been embezzled.

A feature of the proceeding was the presence in court during the afternoon session of Greene and Gaynor, who were brought from the jail under guard. With them were P. W. Meldrim and A. A. Lawrence, of counsel for the defence.

Just as the jury was about to retire after having been charged by Judge Emory Speer, Colonel Meldrim stated that he did not wish it to be understood that the defense waived their right to object to the poll and array. Mr. Erwin replied that the time had passed within the defense had a right to object and Judge Speer said that it was a matter that could be determined later.

Not a Savannah man was on the grand jury. All the jurors were drawn from other counties of the district than this, a plan that was followed in drawing the grand jury which originally indicted the defendants.

The new indictments were not returned against Carter. Those against him on the first two charges appearing above still stand.

WARM WIRELETS.

Captain Fournier, military attache of the French legation at Mexico, has been transferred to Washington in that capacity.

Rev. S. H. Cohen, of Ohef Sholom Temple, Norfolk, announced last night that over $1,000 had been collected there for the Russian Jewish relief fund.

At Washington yesterday, Commander-In-Chief Tanner of the Grand Army of the Republic, announced the committee on pensions. William Rule, Knoxville, Tenn., is a member.

It is announced by State Health Officer Porter, of Florida, that all quarantine restrictions against Pensacola on account of the recent epidemic of yellow fever there, will be removed this (Sunday) morning at 6 o'clock.

Governor Montague, of Virginia, has accepted an invitation to deliver the principal address before the Chamber of Commerce of New York on Tuesday next. He has under consideration a similar invitation from the Chamber of Commerce, of Atlanta, Ga.

W. H. Seymour, president of the Alabama branch of the Southern Cotton Association yesterday issued a call for a meeting of the association to be held in Montgomery, November 30th. Action will then be taken in support of the movement to hold 3,000,000 bales of cotton for 15 cents.

By the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of one of a hunting party of five, in Greene county, Tenn., yesterday, James Maloney was instantly killed and Walter Carter shot through one thigh. Maloney, the dead man, is a member of one of the most prominent families in Greene county.

Governor Montague has appointed Judge R. L. Barton, of Winchester; A. A. Phlegar, of Montgomery, and J. Garland Pollard, of Richmond, as delegates from Virginia to the convention to be held in Washington City, February 19th next, to consider the question of uniform legislation on the part of all the States in the Union on the divorce evil.

Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, yesterday made formal announcement of the platform on which he seeks the Democratic nomination for governor of Georgia. He will begin immediately an active campaign which will be under the management of John T. Boifeuillet, for ten years clerk of the Georgia House of Representatives.

Weakened by the cheering and stamping in unison of two thousand people, the west bleacher on Ferry Field, collapsed at Ann Harbor, Mich., yesterday afternoon, ten minutes after the second half of the football game betwen Michigan and Wisconsin had begun. Almost miriculously none of the throng, who were precipitated to the ground, was seriously injured. Less than a dozen of them were hurt enough to have a physician attend them.

THIRTY-THREE DROWNED OFF BRITISH WARSHIP

Cruiser and Torpedo Boat Collided at Night In Fierce Snow Storm—Torpedo Boat Sank.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Kiel, Nov. 18.—Torpedo boat "S. 126" collided last night near Buelk with the small cruiser Undine. The torpedo boat sank and one officer and 32 seamen are missing.

The disaster occurred during the manoeuvres in Kiel Bay. A torpedo boat division was making a regular attack upon the Undine which had blinded her lights. Later she suddenly used her searchlight which confused the helmsman of the "S. 126" and the torpedo boat got under the Undine's bow and was struck amidship causing the boiler of the "S. 126" to explode. It is believed that all the missing members of the crew were killed or drowned.

The accident occurred in the midst of a driving snowstorm, and when the night was very dark. The torpedo boat sank in four minutes.

UNCLE JOE STILL STANDS PAT.

Opposed to Any Tinkering With the High Tariff.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Among the subjects discussed by the President with some of his callers to-day was the probable condition of the treasury at the end of the current fiscal year. It was the concensus of opinion among Senators and Representatives who have taked to the President about the matter, that the deficit in the treasury this year, if any, at all should appear, will be small. They point to the increased revenues of the treasury during the past three or four months as an indication, despite the somewhat increased expenditures, that no alrming deficit is likely. A small deficit would cause no apprehension in the minds of Congressmen, but many of them believe now that practically no deficit will be shown at the end of the year.

Speaker Cannon had a conference with the President to-day. The nature of their talk he did not disclose. On the tariff revision question, Mr. Cannon indicated that he yet is a standpatter. "If," said he, "a tariff bill bill should be brought under consideration and we should proceed for twelve months or so with its discussion, and then its friends should command the votes necessary to enact it into law, and then the business interests should succeed in adjusting themselves to the new conditions, it probably would be found that the measure contained as many 'outrages' and 'injustices,' as the present law contains."

"Do you think any sort of revenue legislation will be necessary at the approaching session to provide for a possible deficit in the treasury?"

"Look at the balance sheets of the treasury," replied Mr. Cannon. "Look at the balance sheets. They tell the story—they answer your question. We have a pretty comfortable surplus, don't you think?"

CAROLINA VICTORIOUS.

Scored Seventeen to Naught Against V. M. I.—Sensational Play.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 18.—The University of Carolina eleven defeated Virginia Military Institute at Winston-Salem to-day by a score of 17 to 0. Carolina's team was heavier and in better form, but the Virginians put up a strong game. In the first half Carolina made two touchdowns, but failed to kick goal and the half ended with a score of 11 to 0. In the second half, Sitton carried the ball to the twenty-yard line and Abernethy made an eighty-five yard end run for a touchdown.

CASHIER HIT BY RUNAWAY.

J. O. Litchford, of Raleigh, Seriously, if Not Fatally Hurt.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 18.—James O. Litchford, cashier of the Raleigh Savings Bank, was very seriously, if not fatally, injured this evening by a runaway horse, his skull being badly fractured together with a serious depression on the brain. Physicians say he has one chance in a hundred for recovery. He was crossing the intersection of Morgan and Wilmington streets when a runaway horse attached to a buggy dashed by, striking and dragging him some distance, throwing him against a pile of brick.

WIPED AWAY MISERY

Gratitude of Man Who Was Rescued from Cursed Drink Habit

HE GRADUATED AT KEELEY.

He Was Cured of Craving for Liquor and Restored Happiness to His Home—Now Upright Man.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Having been an inmate of your Institute and knowing the great benefits I received at your hands, I feel as though I should herald them to the world; that others suffering with that cursed evil, the drink habit, may be cured, as I have been. Perhaps no mortal ever wandered so far away from his God-given opportunities as I, hence the deep and lasting gratitude that goes out from the very depths of my heart to your management for those benefits received. It wiped away the misery and woes that came to my once happy home. It healed a loving mother's almost broken heart. It restored the sweet friendships of former days with my companions and friends of the long ago. It brought back that sweet communion with my intimate and trusted associates of other days. It brought back that prosperity of former days, where want and misery had been galore. It restored me to a former lucrative position in business, and infused new confidence into my employer who had occasion to distrust me for want of sobriety. It restored me to the God-given opportunity and fitted me again for the many duties that await the upright and honest man, and last, but not least, it brought back that happy peace and bright prospects that await the faithful in this life.

No monument of granite or gold could be more lasting to your memory than the good you are doing for suffering humanity, and eternity itself will only reveal it. I sincerely thank you for the opportunity of adding this feeble testimony that some victim of that cursed habit may run, read, ponder, and heed.
